Meet the Mayor

Three Career Man Heads Fall Creek Village Board

Leader and Telegram News, Wednesday, February 24, 1954.

Fall Creek-Fall Creek village president is a three career man.

Alfred H. Mittlestadt, 70, completed 30 years as the community's 1st rural mail carrier before retiring in 1934. Since then he has carved out an 18-year record in village government as the president. Ed Shong, clerk, says he has the longest record of service of any Fall Creek mayor.

His third vocation is that of hotel keeper. He has operated the St. Charles hotel here since the death of his mother in 1938. The hotel has also been the local bus depot since 1937 when Greyhound was given a franchise in this area.

Mittlestadt was born in the building he now operates on November 23rd, 1883. He started the first rural mail route here in 1900 and was with the process until 1934 when President Franklin Roosevelt passed a special order that rural mail carriers with 30 years or more of retire.

Elected president of Fall Creek in 1934, Mittlestadt served continuously until 1949. He was elected again in 1951 and 1953. His present term expires in 1955.

Two major changes had in the village while he has been in office have been the installation of sewers, which went ahead in 1940, and the water system, which was started in 1948. The sewer system was defeated in a referendum " but was carried out under a state law which allows such work to be done without a majority vote.

Mittelstadt Family

Plans for the future include new surfacing on some streets and curb and gutter work on Main Street.

For relaxation, Mittelstadt enjoys gardening and fishing. He and his wife enjoy traveling and have visited Florida and Colorado.

He married Louise Roesler November 21, 1906. They have three children: Dr. W. W. Mittelstadt, Marshfield; Mrs. C. W. Loken, Fairbault, Minnesota, and Mrs. Royal Newman, Waukesha, Wisconsin.

Mittelstadt's hotel is in the heart of town-which shouldn't be a surprise to anyone because in German, "Mittelstadt" means middle town.
